

#13 PROPOSED TWO CHILD LAW

The proposed law imposes certain punitive provisions (punishing provisions) on citizens having more than two children. But those parents who have 1 or 2 or 3 daughters but no sons will get some additional economic benefits as per this law, And they will not have to face any financial penalty either. But if any parent has 2 sons or 1 daughter & 1 son and still they produce one more child then they will have to face some monetary penalty. This law will also improve the ever-deteriorating population imbalance among different religions in the country. This law can be passed by the Lok Sabha by a simple majority in the form of a money bill. There is no need to pass this law from Rajya Sabha. This law does not violate any article of the Indian Constitution, therefore, there is no need for any kind of constitutional amendment. The main points of this law are given in the table below.
